Sunday, June 29 Brings Two Special Events to Holland Avenue Baptist Church

The music ministry of Holland Avenue Baptist Church will be the focus of this coming Sunday. The first event will be our annual “Freedom Celebration” during the morning worship service. We will celebrate with patriotic music and honor those who have served in our military. Be sure to arrive early for this popular event.

Our second event of the day will be a reception immediately following the morning worship service to honor O’Neta Poovey. O’Neta is stepping down as the Minister of Music here at Holland Avenue Baptist Church to take a full-time teaching position in our local school district. The reception for her will include a light lunch as well as a table for you to leave cards and other tokens of appreciation.

Thanks

Dear Holland Avenue Friends:

Thank you for reaching out to us, showing such wonderful Christian love! We feel so blessed to know you. We appreciate the visits, phone calls, and cards - thank you for helping us to face each day.

Love in Christ,
Jim & Dot Bass

"Seas" the day to make a difference

Pick up a baby bottle on Sunday, July 6 and fill it with your loose change and/or dollar bills. This collection will help a young mother at the Daybreak Crisis Pregnancy Center in Columbia. The filled bottles are due back by Sunday, July 27. Please place filled bottles on the front pew in the sanctuary.

SummerSALT

Remember our SALT classes held on Sunday evenings during the school year? That is what Wednesday evenings will look like during the month of July. There will not be any activities at HABC on Wednesday, July 2, but then starting July 9 and continuing each Wednesday through the end of the month we'll have a couple of adult classes as well as classes for youth, children and preschool. A nursery will also be provided.

Below is a listing of the classes to date:

- Dr. Harmon - New Members Class
- Lindsay Shupe - "Take the Plunge" by Louie Giglio
- Tammy Adams - "What's in the Bible?" for 1st - 5th graders
- Preschool Class
- Nursery

Prayer Reminder

Don't forget to pray for our children at Centri-Kid Camp this week as well as our Mission Team traveling to Guatemala July 2 - 7.
